Dear Rod

Thank you for your email as below.

I have already sent a letter as attached on March 21, 2000 to Gynco.
Please review the CSS Data Base with the serial number 349, "Gynco Electronics Company Ltd."

They have finished NDA process, paid Yen100,000 and obtained two DVD Player specifications book on December 1997.
However, they are not entered CSS Interim License Agreement. So they are not CSS Licensee.

We are not sure the relationship between Gynco Electronics (H.K.) Ltd. and Gynco Electronics Company Ltd.
I believe you should confirm it.

Best regards.

Dear Mr./Ms. Sarek Chan

Thank you for your FAX on March 20, 2000.

First of all, we would like to inform you that all the operations and missions of CSS Interim License were transferred from MEI to DVDCCA at the address below on December 15, 1999.

DVD Copy Control Association, Inc. (DVDCCA)

Address : 225B Cochrane Circle

Morgan Hill, CA 95037, USA

Phone : 408-776-2014

Second. While we have already informed to Mr. Patrik Lau, we had prepared three steps for the application procedures of CSS Interim License.

STEP 1 : Open Base

... You can obtain the open information by application. (General Description).

STEP 2 : NDA Base

... You can obtain the CSS technical specifications only for the evaluation purpose by entering into NDA.

STEP 3 : License Base

... You can obtain CSS Interim License Certificates by entering into License Agreement.

You have already finished till STEP 2 and obtained two copies of CSS technical specifications for DVD Player. If you would like to obtain CSS Interim License Certificates, you have to enter into STEP 3. The detailed procedure to move into STEP 3 is indicated on the above Website. So, we would like you to review this Website and take a necessary licensing procedure against DVDCCA for STEP 3.

If you have further inquiries regarding CSS Interim License, please contact to DVDCCA directly without hesitation.

Thank you in advance for your understanding and cooperation.

Sincerely yours.

Susumu Yamaguchi
